

Eskenazi Health Organized Health Care Arrangement

OHCA Participation: Eskenazi Health strategically considers itself, with other Indianapolis health care providers and their affiliates, an OHCA in order to maximize community health care efficiencies and minimize treatment barriers for physicians and related staff. The OHCA may use and disclose your health information to provide treatment, payment or health care operations for the affiliated members and includes activities such as integrated information system management, health information exchange, financial and billing services, insurance, quality improvement, and risk management activities. The Covered entities included below, each independent of each other, have agreed to collaborate with Eskenazi Health in an accountable care organization or clinically integrated network.
